

The Ripple Effects of Integrated Design: SBIC's Member Meeting and Forum

You are invited to explore the interrelationships between three key building design objectives: sustainability, security, and aesthetics. Can they complement each other, or must they conflict?

Reception

Date: December 3, 2003
Time: 6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.
Venue: Tuscana West,
Washington, D.C.

Meeting and Forum

Date: December 4, 2003
Time: 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Venue: TBA, Washington, D.C.

The Forum will feature:

- Keynote luncheon speech from Ed Feiner, FAIA, Chief Architect for GSA (CONFIRMED)
- National experts/Panel presentations/ Facilitated Q&A sessions, all touching on sustainability in homes, schools, and federal and municipal buildings
- A demonstration of the Whole Building Design Guide (www.wbdg.org)

To register, visit the Sustainable Buildings Industry Council's Web site at www.SBICouncil.org/store/membermeeting.php or contact Sophia Greenbaum at (202) 628-7400 x209. Early bird registration concludes November 21, 2003.

Early Bird Prices (before November 21): $25.00 (SBIC Member); $100.00 (Non-Member); $15.00 (Student [with valid ID]); $25.00 (Federal Officials).

After November 21: $50.00 (SBIC Member); $125.00 (Non-Member); $30.00 (Student [with valid ID]); $50.00 (Federal Officials).